AMEND Senate Bill No. 1109

House Bill No. 637***

by adding the following to SECTION 1 as a new subsection:

(f)

(1) This section does not apply to a person in this state who is subject to an employment-related immunization requirement because the person is employed by the federal government or is performing work pursuant to a contract with the federal government.

(2) It is the intent of the general assembly that the right of a person described in subdivision (f)(1) to object to an employment-related immunization requirement on the basis of a religious conviction will be protected by the United States Constitution.
